Conditions of Entry

For the comfort, safety and enjoyment of all Patrons, Staff and Event Participants, the following Conditions of Entry apply to all Sharks Stadium attendees. In these Conditions, 'Sharks Stadium' means the stadium at 461 Captain Cook Drive, Woollooware NSW 2230, including the playing surface inside it.

Conditions may vary for specific events – refer to the ticket information and the event pages for more information. These Conditions of Entry are to be read in conjunction with the conditions that apply to all specific events.

Patrons who do not comply with the Conditions of Entry will not be permitted entry. Patrons who have been admitted but subsequently fail to comply with the Conditions of Entry may be removed from Sharks Stadium without refund of any entry fee(s).

Sharks Stadium Fan Behaviour Code of Conduct

At Sharks Stadium, everyone is welcome. This means that regardless of which team you support, you have just as much right to enjoy your experience as everyone else. Stadium Management expects all patrons to adhere to the Sharks Stadium Fan Behaviour Code of Conduct whilst in the Sharks Stadium precinct.

As a patron of Sharks Stadium, you have a right to expect an environment where:

- You will be treated in a consistent, professional and courteous manner by all event day staff
- You are able to safely enjoy events free from disruptive behaviour, including foul or abusive language, obscene gestures or other socially unacceptable behaviour.

In return, Sharks Stadium patrons will behave in a manner consistent with the above expectations.

When attending Sharks Stadium you will:

- Support your team in a loud, passionate and enthusiastic manner where appropriate
- Respect patrons and officials of all ages, regardless of team affiliation
- Actively foster a family-friendly environment
- Engage in the responsible consumption of alcohol
- Refrain from fighting, throwing objects or projectiles of any kind
- Use appropriate language, without threatening, foul or abusive content based on race, religion, sexuality or gender
- Share Sharks Stadium's commitment to providing an environment that is free from racism and racial discrimination in line with the Australian Human Rights Commission Spectator Racism Guidelines
- Refrain from using offensive or obscene gestures
- Ensure banners, signs, clothing or other observable materials are free of obscene, discriminatory and/or indecent messages
- Not enter restricted areas (including the field of play) without expressed permission
- Only access areas as per ticketing entitlements
- Refrain from smoking or vaping inside the venue
- Comply with requests from Sharks Stadium event-day staff, NSW Police and other security personnel regarding venue operations and emergency response procedures
- Expect the Sharks Stadium Fan Behaviour Code of Conduct to be actively enforced.

- General Admission ticket holders will receive access to Standing Hill areas of Sharks Stadium.
- The Family Hill (alcohol-free zone) is a beloved feature of our stadium, offering a safe and welcoming space for families. However for NRL night matches, attendance in this area tends to decrease as families opt for daytime games. To better utilise stadium space, the size of Family Hill will be adjusted for select matches, ensuring it reflects actual usage patterns while still catering for family fans.
- Family-Friendly options still remain, a designated alcohol free-zone will still be maintained to accommodate families attending night games.

To report bad behaviour during games, text message Sharks Stadium security on 0433 556 185. Alternatively, if you would like to raise your concerns outside of games, you can email us at members@sharks.com.au

Sharks Stadium works with NSW Police and contracted security services to identify offenders, record incidents and sanction patrons who breach the Sharks Stadium Fan Behaviour Code of Conduct.

Any person who does not comply with this Code of Conduct may be removed from Sharks Stadium. Depending on the severity of the behaviour, anyone evicted may incur a ban, suspension of membership and/or police charges.

The Stadium Management appreciates your support of the Sharks Stadium Fan Behaviour Code of Conduct and looks forward to providing an environment where everyone is welcome!
